

How to download MARC records from Library of Congress

1. Open Opera internet browser. If you do not have it, download from www.opera.com.
2. Go to Library of Congress catalog (<http://catalog.loc.gov>).
3. Select Basic Search.
4. Type in search information (title, author, or ISBN).
5. Select the record you want.
6. In the new screen there are 4 tab choices. Select "full record" tab.
7. When you get the full record, go to the bottom of the screen.
8. Click on the second option in the first box: "MARC Format (only save)."
9. Click on "Print or Save search results."
10. This brings up a "download file" window. Click Save.
11. Name your file.
12. Choose the location to save to, and click Save.
13. Import into Library World like any other record import.
14. Some editing is necessary after it is imported.
